

BAILEY IMITATES TILLMAN

Powerful Texas Senator Makes An Assault On the Undersized Beveridge Of Indiana

OBJECTED TO REMARKS

Which the Indiana Statesman Refused to Withdraw

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

Washington, June 30.—Senator Bailey of Texas, assaulted Beveridge, of Indiana, tonight just after the senate adjourned the executive session. The affair was the result of a bitter controversy which the two senators had during the afternoon in which Beveridge said Bailey had made an unwarranted attack on Solicitor Penfield of the state department. Mr. Bailey demanded Mr. Beveridge retract the language uttered at that time. The latter declined and Bailey declared he would make him withdraw it. Mr. Beveridge still refused and the Texas instantly sprang upon him, seizing Beveridge, who is hardly up to the average in physique, by the throat with both hands. The rush was so sudden and fierce that the chair in which Beveridge was sitting was pushed back against the desk and toppled over and before the assault went any further senators sitting near at hand moved between the desks. Mr. Hansbrough seized Bailey by one arm, and Mr. Spooner seized the other.

MAKES THREAT.
The Texas senator is a powerful man, and it was with great difficulty the senators were able to drag him away and when they succeeded in pulling him from the Indiana senator's neckwear was ripped and torn away in the vigorous grasp of Mr. Bailey. Mr. Bacon of Georgia and Assistant Doorkeeper Layton, assisted in pulling the Texas further away. Bailey meanwhile struggling to get free and lunging toward Mr. Beveridge, as he was removed, he was heard to utter something like a threat about killing.

BAILEY OBSCURE.
Without further effort however, he walked away when Mr. Bacon urged him to be quiet and led him toward the democratic side. Mr. Bacon advised Mr. Bailey to cool down, and Mr. Spooner urged him to apologize, but the Texas refused, declaring that Beveridge had insulted him in the senate and he had taken the only course as the Indiana senator had refused to withdraw his remarks.

TREATS IT LIGHTLY.
Mr. Beveridge remained in the chamber some time. He made light of the affair.

Early in the session Elkins of West Virginia, delivered an earnest speech in favor of the annexation of Cuba, maintaining it would be in the best interests of both countries. Mr. Elkins' remarks drew sharp fire from Mr. Platt of Connecticut, and Mr. Hanna of Ohio, who deprecated any annexation proposition at this time, and urged that the United States ought to be sensible of its obligations to the civilized world if not to Cuba. After a lively colloquy in which General Wood was criticized by inference for using Cuban funds to advance the reciprocity propaganda, Mr. Elkins' annexation resolution was referred to the Cuban relations committee. Among the bills passed was one giving Rear Admiral Schley pay allowance of rear admiral on the active list of the navy.

THE HOUSE.

With final adjournment probable tomorrow the house worked under high pressure from noon until far into the night. As a preliminary several resolutions were adopted to grease the legislative wheels. A rule providing for printing conference reports before consideration was suspended until the end of the session and a resolution adopted making a motion to suspend the rules in order at any time. The house then got down to business.

The conference report on the Philippine civil government bill, which is considered the last obstacle in the way of adjournment, was adopted by the strict party vote with the single exception of Mr. McCall, of Massachusetts, who voted with the democrats. A partial report on the general deficiency appropriation bill was adopted and after a prolonged fight the house, by 118 to 101 adopted the senate amendment to appropriate $500,000 for the Buffalo exposition and the bill went back to conference. The senate amendments to appropriate $100,000 for the Charleston exposition and $1,000,000 to pay Hawaiian fire and bubonic plague awards were defeated, the former by 71 to 118. The bills passed under a suspension of the rules, include a senate bill to allot lands to the Cherokee nation and provide corporation laws for Alaska.

At the evening session Mr. Dick's militia bill, which is to be used to stop the gap for the remainder of the session while the house is waiting for conference reports, was taken up. The adjournment resolution is to be withheld until the conference report on the Philippine bill is adopted by the senate.

THE TWO SHIPS ARE SAFE

The Steamer Centennial Brings Good News from the Missing Jeanie and Portland.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN LOST.

Port Townsend, Wash., June 30.—The steamer Centennial reached port this morning bringing news of the safety of the steamers Jeanie and Portland, also that the story of the loss of the revenue cutter Thetis is untrue. The information was secured by the Centennial from the Belvidere.

The Belvidere was in sight of the Portland and the Jeanie and left them to return to Nome, only after her officers had assured themselves that they could render no assistance to the beleaguered vessels. At the time they were last sighted the Portland had been out of Seattle, Nome bound, fifty-two days and the Jeanie forty-eight days.

Signals from both vessels announced the passengers well, food and water plentiful and the general condition cheerful. The messages, however, carried the admission that the feeling of cheerfulness was greatly augmented by the arrival of the Thetis standing by ready to respond to any urgency signal.

The minister's dispatch also said that President Firmin had left the capital of Hayti under protection of the foreign consul on a vessel. Another cablegram said the Haytien minister of foreign affairs had informed Minister Powell the government had ordered the arrest of Admiral Killick.

ORDER FOR A STRIKE.

Among Union Pacific Machinists At Omaha Was Generally Obeyed.

Omaha, June 30.—The order for a strike of the Union Pacific machinists was generally obeyed today. Already the number of men at work has been greatly depleted by the closing of the shops at Omaha, Cheyenne, North Platte, Armstrong, Kansas, and the curtailment of work at a number of small shops by the company. The machinists, however, include as strikers the entire regular force of all these shops. The legislature is to elect two commissioners to represent the islands in Washington. The powers of the legislature are defined and an extended bill of rights sets forth the individual rights of citizens and their protection against unjust laws.

Authority is given to issue bonds for the purchase of the friars' lands and when purchased these become part of the public domain. The public lands are to be open to homesteaders, similar to the American system and to prevent corporations from absorbing the lands, corporation holdings are limited to 1,024 hectares or 2,500 acres. Corporations also are stringently regulated in holding mining and agricultural lands. The money standard and permanent money system is left for future settlement. A banking system also is postponed. Provision is made for subsidiary and minor coins. Authority is given to issue bonds for harbor and other improvements.

MANAGERS SAY THEY WILL NOT.

Chicago, June 30.—Unless the general managers of the railroads reverse their decision regarding the scale of wages, ten thousand freight handlers will in all probability quit tomorrow morning in all railroad warehouses and freight sheds of Chicago. If the freight handlers strike it is highly probable that other unions will be drawn into the struggle through sympathy. The reply of the railroads included an amended scale of wages to take effect after three months. The men refused to consider the concessions and declare that unless granted better terms they will quit work. From the railroads it was learned tonight that all have determined not to make further concessions.

Officials of the companies operating mines in Pittsford district say a number of old engineers and pumpmen returned to work this morning and that more have applied for work.

At the strike headquarters it is stated only five pump men reported for work. BONFIRES.
London, June 30.—The general feeling of relief as a result of the favorable report of the condition of King Edward vented itself tonight by the touching off of three thousand bonfires throughout the united kingdom originally prepared as a celebration on coronation night.

The signal to light the fires was given by a rocket sent up from Earl's court and burst in a cloud of stars one thousand feet overhead. In response the bonfires rose from every elevation of any consequence from the Lizard to the Orkneys.

The arrangements for King Edward's dinner to the poor of London to be held July 5 are rapidly being completed. THE STORM IN ILLINOIS.

Enormous Damage Done in American Bottoms and Elsewhere.

St. Louis, June 30.—A low estimate placed on damage wrought within a radius of 150 miles of Alton, Ill., by the storm, wind and rain, is a million dollars. While the farmers are the heaviest losers the railroads suffered severely. In the American bottom farming district the farmers are ruined. Wood river has overflowed its banks and the farmers in the vast expanse of bottom lands were forced into the upper districts from their homes to save their lives.

AT DANVILLE.
Danville, Ill., June 30.—The heavy wind and rain the past forty-eight hours has ruined the oat crop and seriously damaged wheat and corn. The Vermilion river is out of its banks. All crops on bottom lands are practically ruined. Fences, small buildings and considerable live stock was carried away.

SIX INCHES OF RAIN

Fell Since the Beginning of the Storm, But the Twenty-four Hour Record Is Unbroken.

Professor Coonradt stated last night that since the beginning of the rain storm on Friday morning up to Monday morning six inches of rain fell. The largest amount in twenty-four hours was 3.62 inches. The record for that time is 4.28 inches.

Sunday hundreds of people visited the river, which was very high, though not so high as it was in 1894. Monday the water had commenced to recede.

WORSE AT DANVILLE.

Grant Sears, foreman of construction at the university buildings, was in Danville Sunday to visit his family. He says that the results of the heavy rains are even more damaging there than in this vicinity. The Vermilion river rose a foot an hour for twenty-five hours and ice and slaughter houses were carried down stream on the flood. The C. & E. I. bridge across the North Fork was in great danger of being carried away and even greater damage was done at the Big Four bridge over Grape Creek. Preparations were being made to raise this bridge about ten feet and cofferdams had been built about the piers and the work was well under way. The flood carried away the cofferdams and the contractors' tools, which taken with the loss of the work already done will amount to a damage of thousands of dollars.

BRIDGE DAMAGED.

The wooden frame work built for use in erecting the new iron bridge across the river three miles south of Harriestown was carried away and will cause considerable delay in the construction work.

DIXIE WON THEM

People of the Louisiana Capital Thawed When the Shelbyville Band Played Dixie.

BLEW FREIGHT FROM TRACK

Dr. Mallory Talks of His Trip Through The South.

One of the excursionists who went to Texas two weeks ago was Dr. Charles E. Mallory of Orleans who was one among those who arrived home yesterday.

Generally speaking Dr. Mallory was well pleased with the south and declares that altogether the trip was a delightful one.

The excursionists started out with the idea that they were to be given long stops at certain stations in order that they might see the sights, but at the earliest possible moment the railroad officials began cutting down the time. For instance, four hours had been allotted for Vicksburg, but the time was cut to twenty minutes. At Baton Rouge, La., there had been no stop announced and that was one of the places that the excursionists had a good time. One of the land agents at Shelbyville, Ill., had a big party on the train and he took the Shelbyville band with them. At Baton Rouge the band formed in line and marched to the state house where the legislature was in session. They started a serenade, but the doors of the house were shut to keep out the noise. Then the band played "Dixie." The legislature adjourned, the doors were thrown open and the northern excursionists were invited in and speech making followed. The excursionists were there more than an hour and when they went back to the train the members of the legislature formed in line and marched to the depot and so did every one else in that part of the city. The excursionists looked upon the impromptu affair at Baton Rouge as one of the most pleasant of their trip.

The excursionists did not go to the city wells at Jennings, although they visited that town. They did go to the city wells at Beaumont and were royally entertained by the people of that city. The excursionists were informed that the force of the Beaumont gushers had increased about 50 per cent.

Dr. Mallory says that the people of the south seem to be prosperous and he declares that from New Orleans west to Houston one will see more fine residences, both on plantations and in the cities and towns, than would be noticed in traveling that same distance in this state.

The northern men had an opportunity to see the country of southern Texas and Louisiana at its worst, for the country had suffered with a long drought which was broken on Friday last. The general impression was that the rain came in time to save much of the rice crop which had not been irrigated.

With the rain came a tornado. Just ahead of the excursion train the tornado struck a freight train in motion and threw thirty freight cars from the track. This train was just ahead of the excursion train. Word came by wire that if there were any physicians as excursionists they should hurry to the scene. The engine was cut loose from the train and Dr. Mallory and several physicians who were on that train went to the wreck, but when they got there they found that while there were several men hurt their injuries were not of a dangerous character. This tornado was evidently a twister for the cars in the head end were thrown to one side, some of the middle cars escaped and those in the rear of the train were thrown to the other side of the track. Some of these cars were thrown clear of the right of way.

The tender of the engine was thrown crosswise of the track, but the engine was not disturbed.

Dr. Mallory said that the excursionists noticed that there were no flies in southern Texas. Horses left standing on the street were not in the least annoyed and the excursionists were not bothered by those pests but what was lacking on the score of flies was more than made up in the number of mosquitoes they encountered.

They were given the necessary blanks and no doubt will return today to get the document they wanted.

The month of June just closed has been as disagreeable as any on record, and the record for rainfall went to pieces. GOT THE BICYCLE.

But the Man Who Took It Managed to Give the Officers the Slip.

Sunday morning a thief stole a bicycle from the residence of William Howard on North Broadway. The police were notified of the affair and began a search for the thief. They heard of him in a dozen different places and were always just about ten minutes behind him. They finally traced the wheel to the Greenberg pawn shop on Prairie street and learned that it had been disposed of there about ten minutes before. A diligent search was then made for the thief but without avail.

Unluckily the officers had a very inaccurate description of the man who took the wheel. It was a good machine and worth much more than the sum for which it had been pawned.

J. A. Beedle, who was signed by Decatur as a pitcher after he left Bloomington, is now a member of the Rockford team, leaders of the league.
He was handed his release Monday afternoon and immediately notified
Hugh Nicol that he was at liberty.
Last evening he received a message telling him to report for duty at once.
He left this morning on the early Wabash train and will be in Rockford this noon.

Beedle was glad to get away from the city. When Rockford played here a week ago Sunday he told Nicol that he expected to be released because he had not been successful in pitching a winning game. He says the Decatur team is not built to win because there is not harmony inside or outside of the club. This, he thinks, is very unfortunate, for he looks upon this as a splendid baseball town, and before leaving last night expressed the opinion that it would be a stem winder with a club that would stand one, two, three.
Beedle is now ambitious to beat Bloomington and Decatur and expects to pitch against both teams.

Fodder For The Fans.

Jack Wilkinson, a brother of George Wilkinson, made his first appearance wearing a Terre Haute uniform yesterday. He is a better fielder than his brother, according to the official batting and fielding record. His batting average last season was .280, or five points more than was credited to George. His fielding average was
.943 as against .915, which was G. Wilkinson's record. Jack opened the season with Decatur this year, but he was released after he was hit with a bat by Manager Pfeiffer of that club.
He wore Decatur, Davenport, Rock Island and Evansville uniforms last year.—Terre Haute Express.

The Pittsburg management is endeavoring to secure the services of Falkenberg, the elongated twirler, formerly with the Illinois 'varsity team, but now with Worcester in the New England league. Matthews, the Illinois shortstop, who also played his last year with the 'varsity last spring, has had a $200 a month offer from the Newark team of the New England league, and Jake Stahl was asked to sign by the same team at his own figures.

One of the best baseball stories of the season comes from Wheeling, W.
Va. The grounds there used to be the city dump. Sam Nichols was playing center field and a long fly came out there that he couldn't reach. The ball landed in a tin can and after a vain effort to get it out Sam fielded the can to second base in time to have the runner out. Frank Miller was playing second and he put the can on the runner, but Umpire Charley Latham called him safe, because Miller didn't put the ball on him. And the crowd wanted to can the umpire.

Manager Fred Pfeiffer has been playing with a bum middle finger on his right hand ever since the games in Cedar Rapids over a month ago.
Now he has a bad third finger on the same hand. He had it split open by a hot ball in Evansville on Friday. He is still in the game, however, and decided not to let a thing like two bad fingers put him on the bench.

Beedles, Barr and McIntyre were released yesterday. The former is regarded as a good pitcher. It is likely that he will sign with Rockford. Nicol said when he was last here that if Beedles was released he would take him on. Since coming to the Decatur club Beedles has been unfortunate. He has pitched four games and lost them all although his work in each instance was very good. McIntyre, the local man, was taken on as an experiment.
Barr has played short ever since the club took the field but it is thought by the management that Middleton will be a more satisfactory man in that position, being an older hand in the baseball public of this city.

Pete Daniels smilingly told his friends yesterday that they got after him in the game of Sunday. They touched him up for thirteen hits.

The Decatur team was here for a few hours Monday morning en route from Evansville to Bloomington. After three games there they come back home with the Bloomers to play three games, which includes two on the fourth.

Hale and Haley have both worn Evansville uniforms. Hale has played with Cedar Rapids and is a fast outfielder and probably the best man in the league when it comes to laying down bunts and beating them out.
Thornton, who is playing centerfield for Decatur, captured the Indiana university team this spring. He began the season with Davenport about a week ago, but was let out when Smith of Terre Haute was signed by the Davenport manager. He is fast on his feet, a good fielder and has the promise of being a good hitter. When it comes to showing a good whip
Thornton is right there with the goods.
He has many friends in this city
among the Indiana men.—Evansville Courier.

ACT ADVISEDLY

Citizens of Assumption Know What They are Doing About the Anarchists and Socialists.

THEY BEGAN LAST FALL

When Residents of the Place Applauded the Act of Czolgoz.

Editor Herald: Referring to your article in Sunday's Herald under the heading, "Give Them Warning," and in which you speak of the action of our citizens in driving Socialist (Anarchist) Saunders from our city and which you characterize as a "bad case of hysterics," I wish in a spirit of fairness to our little city whose good name we would uphold, to explain through the columns of your paper that it was not a case of hysterics.
Neither was it the work of an irresponsible mob lead by ignorant or unworthy persons as the Decatur Review would have their readers believe when it speaks of one of the leaders being "unable to read or write," but was the logical and reasonable outcome of an action taken by our citizens at a mass meeting held at the time or immediately after the assassination of our nation's chief, President McKinley, at which time certain residents of our village boldly displayed the picture of the dastardly assassin and expressed satisfaction at the diabolical deed.

At that meeting, in which all of our best citizens were represented, a committee was appointed to ascertain if our village contained any persons of anarchistic belief and after thoroughly investigating same to report to a meeting to be called for that purpose.

SAUNDERS' ACT.

Nothing further was done in the matter, however, until on Wednesday evening when Mr. Saunders in his speech boldly denounced our government both in its judiciary and executive departments, attacked our public schools, boasting of his own ignorance and stating that he never attended school a day in his life, cursing his own country to which (according to his own story) he had been repeatedly advised to return, when, in his former speeches, he expressed himself against our country.

STIRRING UP STRIFE.

The entire drift of his talk was to stir up strife in the minds of our laboring men, to make them dissatisfied with their lot, etc.

The action of our citizens on Thursday evening was the result of a conference of our citizens and was upheld and led by some of our very best business and professional men after thoroughly canvassing the whole matter; as were also the subsequent proceedings on Friday night and the later actions of the "committee."

In regard to your statement that the action of the committee is not universally applauded, the writer will, if you so desire, get the written endorsement of nine out of every ten of our best citizens, including business and professional men, stating they are thoroughly in sympathy with the work of the committee and will give them their unqualified moral support in the matter of ridding our city of these vilest of earth's creatures. Respectfully,
A LOVER OF JUSTICE.

Let, not liberty, was the quest of Aguinaldo according to Admiral Dewey.

The coming Fourth of July witnesses the great American nation peaceful, prosperous and happy.

Unless unlooked for obstructions beset the way dirt will soon begin to fly along the line of the Panama canal.

France tenders her good offices to this country in getting a warranty deed to the Panama canal and its belongings.

Oh, Mr. Pfeffer, won't you please hurry up to start up that ladder? Decatur is too good a ball town to be a tail-ender all summer.

It is confidentially given out that the democrats will not circulate Admiral Dewey's testimony before the Philippine committee as a campaign document.

Carter Harrison has Bryan on his side in his fight against Hopkins. The Hopkins of Illinois are a thrifty family. One will be a republican senator and the other bosses the democrats.

Would you believe it? The commissioners of the Charleston exposition returned to the state treasury an unexpended balance of $1500. The appropriation was $25,000. Does any one ever remember of any such occurrence in the history of expositions?

The house of representatives to be elected this fall is under the new apportionment. It increases the number of members and adds a little element of uncertainty. Careful calculations, however, show that there will be a republican majority at least equal to that of the present house.

America rejoices with England over the prospect of the king's recovery. It is not amiss, however, to hear in mind the bright prospects put forth for the recovery of President McKinley until almost the time of his death. Doctors are useful people, but they are not infallible in their bulletins.

Congressman Kern of Illinois ought not to let it occur again. He got into the lock-up at the national capitol last Friday for disorderly conduct on the streets. Members of the national legislature ought to be taught to obey the laws they make like other ordinary mortals. Mr. Kern is the successor of Mr. Rodenberg of the East St. Louis district.

Those who have been holding Aguinaldo up as a second George Washington ought to ponder what one George Dewey says about this notorious Filipino. Dewey calls him a robber and says that he had no government and never thought of liberty for his people. Admiral Dewey knows. General Funston did a good deed when he bagged this adventurer.

Ringling Bros. are contemplating a change of base in winter quarters. Hereafter they have wintered at Baraboo, Wis. They think they should go further south and escape some of the rigors of the Wisconsin climate.

Metropolis, Ill., is a place being considered. Other southern Illinois towns are trying to capture the big show. There are 500 horses and about 200 people besides the collection of animals. It would seem wise to locate in the corn belt. Decatur is in about the correct latitude for convenience and comfort.

Fairlawn park has become such a popular resort and picnic ground that the custodian is compelled to book engagements for the pavilion. First come first served is the rule. At times engagements are made for weeks ahead. This beautiful spot should be speedily put on a permanent basis as a public park.

"Secretary Root," says the Boston Globe, "shows that the Philippine war cost us $170,326,586 and what have we got to show for it?" First, we have the anti-imperialist league of Boston, the most unpatriotic and venomous organization that ever existed in the republic. Second, the loyal people have their self-respect, the respect of the world and the respect and confidence of the most civilized Filipinos to show for it.

NEEDLESS SURPRISE.

Brigadier General Hale, who commanded the First Colorado regiment in the Philippines, it is reported, assumes surprise over the statement of Admiral Dewey of an understanding between himself and the Spanish governor general for the surrender of Manila. General Hale's reasons for surprise, he states, are that he did not hear of any such arrangement and that neither General MacArthur nor General Greene, who were present, heard of any such arrangement. These facts do not warrant the surprise General Hale exhibits. Admiral Dewey stated he had made such an arrangement, but did not state that he had communicated that fact to the then Colonel Hale or any of these subordinate generals, but he does state he communicated his arrangement to General Merritt, who was in command of the army at Manila, and adds that that general did not take much stock in it. It will be recalled that Dewey stated that General Anderson in his testimony when asked whether Dewey had issued certain orders or communicated certain things that the army was not taking orders from Dewey. Dewey had no authority to command the army. Merritt had no authority to command the navy. These arms of the service simply acted in harmony upon agreement between Dewey and General Merritt. Dewey's statement is that he told Merritt of his arrangement with the Spanish governor general and that Merritt took no stock in it, that is to say, Merritt had no confidence in the intention of the Spaniards to carry out their part of the agreement and proposed to take no chances. Therefore, it follows that Dewey and Merritt agreed upon the attack as it was made. It is not at all surprising that under the circumstances neither Dewey nor Merritt felt called upon to tell Colonel Hale all that was going on.

THE FINEST EVER

Dream of a Drum Major's Suit for Dick Mueller.

About the finest clothes in town are on exhibition in M. & J. Maienthal's window on Merchant street. They comprise a first class drum major's outfit and are a little bit the gaudiest ever. The suit is of fine white broadcloth and is trimmed with gold braid. The sleeves are beautifully embroidered and gold frogs, epaulets and shoulder knots complete the effect. Besides the suit there is the regulation shake of white fur and a fatigue cap of white broadcloth trimmed with gold braid. A handsome baton completes an outfit of which any band might be proud.

Dick Mueller will wear this finery on special occasions when he stalks at the head of the celebrated Goodman Fourth Regiment band.

Maienthal's are also making forty pairs of white duck pants for the band men to wear in camp.

COMING HOME FROM CUBA.

Tom Entler Sailed from the Island on Sunday Evening.

The relatives of Tom Entler are looking for him home within a few days. They received word yesterday that he had sailed from the island on Sunday evening. He has been there for the past two or three years and has been in the United States army as a wagon master.

Saved from Awful Fate.

For desperate Throat and Lung Diseases it is the safest cure in the world, and is infallible for Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Affections. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. GREATEST OF ALL Please Will Be That of The Court of Honor to Be Held in Decatur on July 23.

THOUSANDS ARE EXPECTED

To Attend From Landing Cities of Illinois—The Plans.

One of the biggest picnic crowds Decatur has ever had the pleasure of entertaining will be here on July 23 to attend the annual outing given by the Picnic Association of the Court of Honor, which was organized at Weldon Springs last year. The picnic will be an all day affair.

THE IMMENSE CROWD.

The first special train will arrive from Springfield bringing about 1500 members of the Court besides a large number of the citizens who will enjoy the day with the members. Urbana and Champaign will arrive next with about 800 members. Elgin, although out of the district, will come with several hundred on a special train. The other courts which will be present, some bringing special coaches, are as follows: San Jose, Riverton, Springfield, Bement, White Heath, Heyworth, Grays, Bloomington, Taylorville, New Holland, Oakford, Champaign, Clinton, Lincoln, New City, Havana, Barclay, Clarksdale, Urbana, Arthur, Mahomet, Wapella, Weldon, Argenta, Waynesville, Kenney, and other towns that have not yet been heard from.

AT FAIRLAWN.

The celebration will be at the Fairlawn park which is secured for the day. Goodman's full band is engaged for the music. Dancing will be the pastime of the afternoon and evening and there will be a series of athletic sports in the afternoon. The park will be decorated. All who come are invited to bring their baskets, but there will be eatables on the grounds for those who do not come prepared. There will be no parade and as soon as the members and their friends arrive they will be ushered to the park where the reception committee will look after their welfare.

ATHLETICS.

The events as planned by the committee are as follows: Tug of war, between several of the visiting teams to be matched. Fat man's race, three legged race, wheelbarrow race, potato race, running race for girls, baseball throwing for ladies, pie eating contest for the boys. There will also be several running races. There will be two prizes for each event, which have been kindly donated by the merchants of the city.

SPEAKERS FOR THE DAY.

The speakers for the day will be: Congressman B. F. Caldwell, Attorney General Hamlin of Springfield, Congressman Warner and Congressman Hopkins. The address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Charles Shilling. A. L. Hereford, Supreme Chancellor of the order, will reply to the address of Mayor Shilling on behalf of the order. The address will likely be delivered in the afternoon but at least one will be delivered in the morning.

THE DRILL CONTEST.

One of the features of the day will be the drill contest between the working teams of the different courts. Over $125 will be given away in prizes for these contests.

The exhibition will be immediately after supper and will be held in the pavilion. The Decatur team is considered by many of the courts to be one of the best drilled and they will likely make a show in the contest.

THE ALL DAY DANCE.

The dance will be one of the things of greatest interest to the young people. The dance will commence with the music, following the lunch at noon. The pavilion will be utilized for the drill contest for about an hour after supper when the merry revellers will have another four hours of dancing.

ELECT OFFICERS.

Each court will elect delegates to the business session which will be held in the room of the Decatur Court in the Orlando Powers building in the afternoon. The session will elect officers and decide the place of holding the next annual picnic.

THE OFFICERS OF THE ASSOCIATION AT PRESENT ARE:

President—H. B. Wise, Decatur.
Vice President—Charles Van Dorn, Springfield.

Secretary—John G. Davis, Clinton.
Treasurer—H. A. Peabody, Taylorville.

Directors—C. H. Lux, Havana. Dr. E. J. White, Urbana. W. H. Thompson, Bloomington. Dr. J. M. Blythe, Decatur. Edward Miltzell and W. J. Corrier, Springfield. Edward Meyer, Bement.

A meeting of the Decatur Court will be held at the lodge hall on Friday night when the election of eight delegates to attend the session will be held.

The matter of arrangement is in general charge of H. B. Wise and Dr. J. M. Blythe, who are the only officers of the association in the city. The meeting on Friday night will appoint committees to assist in the preparation.

All railroads running into the city have made a row rate besides the number of special trains which will be run over every road. A special will Snuff and tobacco. The tax is reduced to 6 cents per pound.

Cigarettes. The tax on cigarettes weighing more than 3 pounds per thousand is reduced to 3 per thousand.
A drawback or rebate is allowed on all original and unbroken factory packages of smoking and manufactured tobacco and snuff held by manufacturers or dealers on July 1, 1902, to the amount of difference between the higher rate paid and the tax imposed.

COMING IN A FLOOD.

Plenty of Material Now Receiving for The Millikin University.

After a shortage lasting nearly a month a flood of material is beginning to pour in on the site of The Millikin University. Carloads of lime and lumber, stone and terra cotta are arriving daily and more is to come. The terra cotta cornice and the third floor joists for the west building have arrived and the contractor hopes to raise the roof timbers next week. The steam hoist has been installed and will be in operation today. Work on the buildings will be suspended Friday and Saturday, July 4 and 5.

It is proposed as soon as the roofing on the two end buildings, which will be in about three weeks, to install about twenty arc lights and put on another shift of men. This plan depends somewhat upon the supplies of materials.

It's all right to call a vaudeville actor a "ham" when he is sandwiched in between two who are better bred.

RECTOR PEABODY

Of St. John's Episcopal Church Has Resigned His Charge and the Vestry Has Accepted.

SERVED NEARLY A YEAR.

Leaves Now Because of Ill Health—Church News and Announcements.

The vestry of St. John's Episcopal church met in special session last evening to consider the resignation of the rector, Rev. Douglas C. Peabody, which was tendered to take effect today, July 1. This sudden action was necessitated on account of the rector's ill health. Immediate rest and relief from all care being demanded. The vestry in accepting the resignation expressed regret and sympathy on account of his affliction and the hope that he might soon be restored to health.

ENGLISH LUTHERAN. There was a two-fold celebration at the First English Lutheran church on Sunday. Children's day and anniversary day were celebrated with pretty effect in the auditorium of the church which was thronged with the members and their friends. The children had general charge of the program.

The annual report of the Sunday school was read by Miss Hallie J. Kemper. The present enrollment is 108, with an average attendance of 66. Dr. N. D. Myers has just completed eleven years of service as superintendent. Those who were perfect in their attendance during the year were presented with a handsome copy of the Oxford edition of the Bible. They are as follows: Grace Anderson, Earl Coble, Merle Myers, Edgar Peters, Reuben Coble. There are three teachers still teaching in the school who were present at the first meeting of the school nineteen years ago, viz: Miss Hallie J. Kemper, M. L. Deck and A. G. Webber.

The annual meeting for the election of officers will be held on Wednesday evening.

The annual picnic will be held at the Fairlawn park on July 9, in the afternoon.

EAST PARK CHAPEL. A pretty musical service was substituted for the regular preaching service at the East Park chapel on Sunday. Rev. Roach the new pastor, made a few brief remarks. The musical program was given over to the little folks and they acquitted themselves creditably.

FIRST METHODIST. Dr. Reed preached on Sunday, Rev. Gibbs being in Ohio visiting friends. Rev. Gibbs will return on Tuesday or Wednesday.

GRACE METHODIST. Miss Ferguson told of her work as a deaconess at the Grace church on Sunday morning.

The Ladies' Aid Society will give a social at the church on Tuesday night.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society will meet at the church on Tuesday afternoon.

His subject will be "Christianity and the Common People."

After next Sunday Rev. McDonald will begin a series of short sermons on the "Coming of the Kingdom of God."

There will be no Sunday evening service for one month on account of the absence of the pastor.

CONGREGATIONAL. In view of the nearness of the 4th of July the last Sunday evening service of the year at the Congregational church was converted into a patriotic service. The evening was largely musical. The choir was assisted by Ralph Wismer and Orville Wilhelmy. There was a duet by the two and a violin solo by Orville Wilhelmy.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN. At the First Presbyterian church on Sunday Dr. Penhallegon announced that he had made preparation for a minister to occupy the pulpit in his absence abroad. On next Sunday Dr. W. L. Torbet of Jacksonville will preach. There will be no evening service during the months of July and August. The regular prayer meeting services will be held on Wednesday night at the usual hour and on Friday night the teachers and bible class will meet.

The address which was to have been given by Dr. Taylor to the children of the Baptist church on Sunday night was postponed one week on account of the rain cutting down the attendance.

Those who attended the services at the Central Church of Christ on Sunday heard some of the most delightful solos of the season. Mrs. Mountjoy Shoemaker, one of the finest contralto singers in the state and an old friend of Rev. F. W. Burnham and family was in the city, a guest at the home of the pastor, and sang at the services. Her morning selections were: "The Rich Young Ruler," before the sermon, and after it, "Will There Be Any Stars," by request. In the evening Mrs. Shoemaker and her sister, Mrs. Knox of Pine Bluff, Ark., sang a duet, "Keep on Believing." Mrs. Shoemaker sang, "The Publican."

Kings' Daughters' meeting postponed one week as the regular date falls on July 4.

KING EDWARD IN ILLINOIS.

Lost on the Prairie While On a Shooting Trip.

In 1860 while in the United States King Edward, then Prince of Wales was entertained by a chicken hunt. The party was near Alton.

His success in bagging game quite carried the prince away, figuratively, and also literally, during one hunt, for he was soon lost from both his friends and attendants in a country totally unknown to him. When he realized the fact he attempted to retrace his steps, but even his servant, who carried the game for him, was nowhere to be seen. Striking out toward the setting sun he determined to reach some sort of habitation as quickly as possible in order that he might reach Breese, Clinton county, the party's headquarters, before dark.

He was quite worn out when he came upon a Scotch-Irishman plowing in a field. The prince approached him and commanded that he hitch his horses at once to the nearby wagon and drive him as speedily as possible to Breese.

The man stopped, quietly took a quid of tobacco from his mouth, depositing it near the princely feet, and taking another chew stared in amazement. "What is the matter, my good man," said the prince. "It is not so far to Breese that your horses would not make the trip, is it?"

"Faith, an' nary a that, sor, but it's no business I have got in Breese the day."

"Perhaps," said the prince haughtily, but with a suppressed smile hovering about his lips, "you do not know that you are refusing to do a service for an English nobleman?"

"Shure, an' that's nather here nor there to me, sor. We are all on the same footing in this country. If you want me to take you to Breese show your wad."

Finally realizing what he meant by "wad," the prince thrust his hand in his pocket and drew out a $5 bill. That settled it. Title or no title the road was open to Breese.

"Climb in, pardner," said the Irishman, as he hastily fastened his horses to the wagon.

On the road the prince chatted familiarly with his grotesque and original friend, passing, as he remarked, one of the most amusing hours of his trip through the states.

The Irishman was delighted, and his prejudiced against titled heads was rapidly diminishing when as they came in sight of Breese they met several of the party out in quest of him.

Getting out of the wagon and mounting the horse that had been led out for him, the prince turned to his new friend and said: "My good man, when you return home just tell you wife that you drove the prince of Wales into Breese."

"Well, faith," said the Irishman, shifting his lines into his left hand, "an' that's a good one." Extending his hand to Wales, he said with a grin: "Shake, prince or no prince, you're the right sort, and if ye ever come into these parts again jest drop in. The old woman would be powerful glad to see ye."

MRS. ELZIA HILL

Wife of H. W. Hill Died Sunday Morning at 8:30 O'clock at Her Residence on Pine Street.

HAD BEEN ILL LONG TIME.

Native of North Carolina, But Lived in Mason County Since 1866.

The death of Mrs. Elzia Hill, wife of H. W. Hill, occurred on Sunday morning at 8.30 o'clock at the family residence on Pine street. It was not unexpected. Mrs. Hill has been ill since the first of March and during the past week or more her condition has been critical and the final dissolution was looked for at any time. Death was the result of old age and general debility.

Mrs. Hill was a native of Rowan county, North Carolina, where she was born on March 20, 1819. She was the daughter of James and Jane Stevenson and with her parents moved to Cape Girardeau county, Missouri, when only seven months old. While a resident of that county she was married in 1843 to Hugh W. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill left Cape Girardeau county in 1860 and settled in Montgomery county, where they resided until 1866 when they came to Mason county. They to the city in 1874 and at first lived on West William street, but later built the beautiful home at the end of Prairie avenue, on Pine street, and have since made their home there.

Of the six children born to them only one is living, John N. Hill of Mason, who has been constantly at his mother's bedside with his aged father for several days past. Besides her husband Mrs. Hill is survived by nine grandchildren—five children of John N. Hill, who reside with their parents near Macon, and Hugh, Gussie and Emma Bone and Mrs. L. A. Mills, all of this city.

Mrs. Hill has been a member of the Presbyterian church since girlhood. Her life has been one of devotion to her husband and family. One by one with the exception of a son she has suffered the loss of her own children, and the love she so richly bestowed on them was transferred to her grandchildren, to whom she has been much more than a grandmother. Her simple life of devotion to the best that there is in womanhood and motherhood, her gentle, generous, neighborly interest in the welfare of her friends, have earned for her not only the respect but the love and esteem of all with whom she came in contact. She has left to her family and friends the priceless heritage of a life well lived.

The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, 212 North Pine street, and the services will be conducted by Revs. W. H. Prestley and W. H. Penhallegon. The casket will be open from 10 a. m. till 12 m. for friends of the family wishing to view the remains.

ROSE FARRELL. Miss Rose Farrell died of cerebral tumor at Wauwatosa, Wis., June 28, 1902.

She will be buried from the home of her brother, J. E. Farrell, at Hervey City, Ill., July 1st. Funeral services will be held at the M. E. church at Mt. Zion at 11 o'clock a. m.

MARTIN R. MURPHEY.

Death and Burial of a Promising Little Boy.

Martin R. Murphey, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murphey, died at 6:45 a. m. Sunday, June 29th, at the family residence, 459 South Main street. He was seven years, seven months and twenty-one days old and his death was due to acute Bright's disease following scarlet fever. He was sick about six weeks.

Martin Murphey was an unusually bright and studious boy and very companionable. His many ways and pleasant manners endeared him to all who knew him. Though never robust and on that account shut out from the more boisterous games of the playground he was a favorite with his companions and by his aptness and application he was able to pass with his class to the second grade at the end of the school year just finished, although he had been able to attend school for only three months out of the entire term. The news that he had passed came a few weeks ago and comforted him greatly.

Besides his father and mother he leaves a younger brother, Robert J. Murphey.

The funeral was held from the family residence in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and although the services had been announced as private on account of the fact that there had been scarlet fever in the house, many close friends of the family assembled to show their sympathy for the bereaved parents. The open casket was completely surrounded with beautiful floral offerings and a profusion of flowers were banked about and above the bier. Many of these were from friends in Leroy, Champaign and other towns.

Rev. F. W. Burnham, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, conducted the services and a choir composed of Mrs. F. P. Howard, Miss Ruth Seells, Alonzo Eymann and Rev. Mr. Burnham sang. The first hymn, "Jewels," had been the favorite of Martin and the choir also sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Go, Bury Thy Sorrow."

In his remarks Rev. Mr. Burnham spoke briefly of H. Samuel, 12:15-23. He alluded to the wisdom of David's conduct at the death of his son. David was willing to leave the mystery of death, and of prayers seemingly unanswered, entirely with God. He prayed and fasted with hope that the child might be spared; but when death finally came his faith did not waver. He went up to the higher truths for comfort. "He shall not return to me, but I shall go to him." Then when he had rested the case with God David turned to the duties of life that remained. Taking nourishment for his own strength, he went into the house of the Lord and worshipped, then returned to his own home to comfort his bereaved wife and care for the loved ones that were left. These seem to be commonplace incidents; but after all there may be found in them the essence of wisdom, for when all the kind words of friends have been said when the floral offerings have been made and the service of song is done, the only consolation that is able to bind up the broken hearts is to be found in the trust and worship of God, and in the sweet influences of the home. The one gives a radiant horizon to the vision of the future, while the other pours balm into the wounds of the present. Like David, these young parents have been much in prayer as they approached this first great sorrow of their united life. They are not strangers to the secret of His presence. They have been able to say "Thy will be done," and He whose ear is ever open to our cry will give strength to meet His will where our wish must be denied.

The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

FUNERALS.

MRS. PHALEN.

The funeral of Mrs. Malinda Phalen was held Monday afternoon from her late residence on East Herkimer street. Rev. F. B. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacle Church of Christ, conducted the services, which were largely attended. The choir of the church furnished music and there were many beautiful floral offerings.

The pallbearers were: W. W. Day, N. T. Keown, G. W. Ribelin, E. L. Hale, E. Edds and E. Stringer.

JOSEPH URBAN.

The funeral of Joseph, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Urban, was held Sunday at 3 p. m. from St. James Catholic church. Rev. Father Tepe officiated and the interment was at Calvary cemetery.

SELF-PROTECTED PLANTS.

Southwestern Vegetation Either Armed or Armored.

Writing in the Century of the southwest (Arizona and New Mexico particularly), Ray Stannard Baker has this to say of the self protected plants of the desert spaces:

"In the green hills one loves to lie on the grass, to brush against the trees, to pick a twig here and there and taste the tart sap, but the desert allows no such familiarity. Everything that lives within its confines is either armed or armored. Every cactus stalk is covered with a myriad of spines and hooks as sharp as needles, that warn one to keep his distance. Tread not on the cactus with your heavy shoes even, for the barbed spines will often pierce thick leather; every rider of the plains has had the experience of picking cactus spines from his bare flesh. The mesquite tree, which is a near relative to the honey locust, is covered with thorns, so that you trespass at your peril; the cat's claw strikes at you as you pass, tearing your clothing and lacerating your skin. Even the agaves and the yuccas, the green foliage of which looks soft enough in the distance, are armed with leaves each of which is a double-edged sword with a spear point. The leaves of the spreading bunches of bear grass, which covers a thousand desert hills, often are so stiff, needle-pointed, and rasp-edged that no animal ever ventures to touch them. Even the greasewood and the strange paloverde tree—the "green pole" of the Mexicans, a tree with branches, but with almost invisible leaves—while having no spines, yet know well how to protect themselves. Break off a twig of either, and the smell of it that clings to your fingers will cure you well of further desire to meddle."

EXCITED GRAIN MARKET.

Results From The Unprecedented Rains Everywhere.

Chicago, June 30.—Wheat—Net gains of 1 1/4 to 1 5/8 were established for the day but the closing prices were as much as 3-8 from the best prices touched. The rains in the past few days over the entire winter wheat belt caused shorts to rush to cover at the opening and prices advanced rapidly. The south west led the buying covering millions of bushels during the morning around the top prices. Routine statistics received little attention, wet weather overbalancing all else. Liverpool was 1-4 lower, and local receipts were 29 cars.

Corn—There was some abatement in September strength which closed at 65, after selling between 62 and 63 3/4, and showed a net gain for the day of 1 1/2. July held up well and closed, within 1-8 of the top with a net advance of 2 5-8 over Saturday. The trade was active and prices the highest on the present crop. The trade was mainly in September and December. Shorts were principal buyers. Local receipts 255 cars.

Oats—Excited, higher, with wet weather a factor. Shorts were scared and there was a wild rush to cover with prices 1-2 to 1 5-8 over Saturday's close. The excitement continued throughout the day and advances of 1 3-4 to 2 3-4 were recorded, the latter on July and net gains of 1 1-2 to 2 at the close. New September was the favorite. Statistics were all bullish.

Realized for Desirable Cattle on the Chicago Market.

Chicago, June 30.—Cattle—The receipts today with full short of general expectations, although it is taken for granted the decline in prices for all grades except the best during the latter part of last week, would keep a good many cattle back. Receipts were in the neighborhood of 16,000 against 16,949 for the same time last week. This extremely moderate supply served to bring about a stronger feeling and cattle that were very desirable in quality averaged a dime higher, choice selling at the best figures yet seen.

Hogs—About 33,000 head were marketed today against 32,842 for last Monday. Some 6,500 swine were carried over from last week, but the supply of good hogs was not excessive and an active demand this morning caused an advance of five to ten cents.

Sheep—An anticipated there was a big run, consisting largely of northern range fleeces, and buyers demanded further concessions in prices. Receipts were in the neighborhood of 20,000 against 28,590 last Monday. Business was slow getting started and prices ruled very weak.

THE PRICES.

Cattle—Receipts, 16,000 head. Market steady. Good to prime, $7.00 to $8.40; poor to medium, $4.75 to $7.50; stockers, $2.50 to $5.25; cows, $1.40 to $3; Texans, $4 to $7.

Hogs—Receipts, 32,000 head. Market, five to ten cents higher. Mixed butchers, $7.25 to $7.75; good choice heavy, $7.80 to $7.90; rough heavy, $7.40 to $7.65; light, $7.25 to $7.55; bulk sales, $7.40 to $7.75.

Sheep—Receipts, 20,000 head. Market slow. Sheep, 3.25 to $4; lambs, steady, $4 to $6.50.

Violent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by Dr. G. W. Roberts, of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless until he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood disease, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. DID MUCH DAMAGE

But Railroad Men Are Hopeful The Rainfall Is Temporarily At An End.

BIG JOB IN CHANGING A GAUGE.

Local and General News of The Railroads and Their Employees.

The Wabash trains are again moving over the track from Decatur to St. Louis but there are places where speed is greatly reduced. All of the lines crossing the American bottoms had more or less trouble as a result of the unprecedented rains of the last week. Sunday the Big Four had an excursion train for St. Louis that could not reach that city. The company could not get the train beyond Litchfield and the Wabash undertook to get the train into St. Louis but had to abandon the effort at Carpenter and the excursionists did not get into St. Louis.

All of the companies were in trouble. Trains were twisted in all ways. They were derailed from one track to another regardless of what company owned the road. By this interchange of courtesies the trains were moved after a fashion. The managers were content to get through in any way under the circumstances.

The first trouble the Wabash had was near Honey Bend Saturday night. There the water backed up on each side of an embankment and the dirt slipped down on each side until it was considered unsafe. For that reason trains were derailed by way of Springfield. By the time that place was made passable trouble had commenced south of Carpenter. The American bottoms were flooded and from Sunday morning at 2 o'clock until midnight Sunday no trains could move over that track. Monday however, it was again in service.

All day Monday there was a work train at the Sangamon river bridge south of Decatur. There the heavy rains had threatened the big embankment and the road department was busy dumping dirt there to strengthen the place. A new switch track or two is to be put in at the new corn oil mill east of Decatur and a considerable cut will be required. While the switch was not needed just yet the work of cutting was commenced in order that earth might be had to assist in repairing the damage in other places. A train load of twenty cars of gravel were sent by Supt. E. A. Gould of the eastern division of the Wabash to assist in repairing weakened embankments.

The damage to the road is not the only loss the railroads will be called upon to suffer but they are lucky compared with some of the farmers along the American bottoms. The potato fields there are under water and the rush of tubers from that district will be delayed for from five to ten days as a result. The potatoes, however, will not be entirely lost. The farmers who had cut their wheat and had it standing in shocks about their fields will lose it all. It is said that the Mississippi river at St. Louis is filled with wheat shocks which floated out of the American bottoms. Saturday night and Sunday there was practically no attempt to move freight trains on the 13th district of the Wabash but Monday they were again put in motion and if there is any let up in the rain the expectation is that the worst is passed.

CHANGE OF GAUGE IN 9 HOURS.

The Burlington and Northwestern railway, a narrow gauge line 105 miles long, running from Burlington to Onkaloosa, was changed to a standard width road in a little less than nine hours. This remarkable feat was accomplished in a driving rain and under the most perverse circumstances. One hundred and fifty miles of track were widened, using 440 men, actual count, for the operation, and the average of relaying one rail a minute was easily maintained. The road is a branch of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy system.

BIGGER ENGINES.

The tendency is all toward fast running. President Callaway, of the locomotive trust, says that a majority of the many orders he is receiving are for the powerful locomotives of the Atlantic type. Boston feels the need for speedier railway service, and the locomotive corporation is immediately to construct for the Boston and Albany a number of very powerful locomotives of this new and record-making type. The perfecting of details by which mail service between the Atlantic coast and the Mississippi valley is reduced in time several hours points inevitably, it is believed, to an early reduction in the time schedule for some of the passenger trains. Experience has certainly shown that there is demand enough for trains running at high rate of speed between the larger financial and commercial centers to justify the operating of such trains, even though a higher passenger tariff is charged for the service, and it has already been demonstrated that there is business enough in the way of passenger traffic between New York and Chicago and by two of the trunk lines to justify the running of the daily twenty-hour train, although an excess fare of $3 is charged for that service.

The Union Pacific has discharged

500 MORE EMPLOYEES FROM THEIR SHOPS

In Wyoming, making 600 dismissed since June 15. It is understood that as a result of the strike the shops will be closed permanently, and this action has produced a panic in the town, as $75,000 per month was disbursed at that point.

The Chicago & Northwestern owns 750 acres of ground in Chicago in the center of the business district. Besides its extensive freight and passenger terminals, it owns in the city limits ninety miles of track and, counting double tracks and sidings, 262 miles, and this property has greatly increased in value in the last few years.

The new wage scale of the train men on the Iowa Central has been fixed and there will be no further trouble. On through freight runs wages have been changed from $2.90 for conductors and $1.90 for brakemen per 100 miles to $3 and $2, and on local freights from $2.90 to $3.25 and $2.16 to $2.3. The pay of switchmen has been advanced 30 per cent and of passenger men $5 per month.

Three New England roads have decided to abandon oiling of their roadbeds to keep down dust, and will ballast them with broken stone, which at first is expensive, but when once down the rain washes it and there is no further trouble from dust.

R. E. Cahill, division superintendent of the Missouri Pacific, has resigned and will today assume the duties of superintendent of the Choctaw, Oklahoma & Gulf road, a part of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific.

Supt. A. Robertson, who had been at the scene of the high water south of Decatur since Saturday night, returned home on Monday.

Fireman James Morris and Harry Taylor of the Wabash have gone to Bluffs for a squirrel hunt.

Engineer Tom Collins and Fireman Webster have been assigned to Wabash engine 711 and yesterday went to Springfield to get that mill which has just been given a thorough overhauling.

Despatcher Frank Dorwin of the Wabash will today take a ten days' leave of absence.

Despatcher Will Halstead who has been enjoying a ten days' leave of absence will today resume work.

Tom Landreth, a Wabash carpenter, had his finger mashed while working at Edwardsville Junction Monday.

C. C. Morris, car inspector for the Wabash has resigned his position and will take service with the Mueller company.

T. J. Burns, for twenty years passenger agent for the Alton at Bloomington, has been appointed district passenger agent for that road with headquarters at Springfield. He will have jurisdiction over the lines from St. Louis to Bloomington and to Peoria. He will be succeeded as local agent at Bloomington by his son, T. J. Burns, Jr., who is with the Michigan Central at Chicago.

WIT UPON THE BENCH.

Irish Jurist Who Frequently Upset the Judicial Gravity.

Lord Morris was a typical Irishman and a generation ago was often cited as one example of how judicial proceedings could be robbed of some of their solemnity. He was once conducting a trial in Coleraine in which a gentleman sought damages from a veterinary surgeon for having poisoned a valuable horse. The issue depended upon the question of how many grains of a certain drug could be safely administered. The dispensary doctor proved that he had given eight grains to a man, from which it was to be inferred that twelve for a horse was not excessive. "Doctor, dear," said the judge, "never mind yer eight grains in this matter of twelve, because we all know that some poisons are accumulative in effect, an' ye may go on to the edge of ruin with impunity. But tell me this: The twelve grains—the twelve grains, mind ye—wouldn't they kill the divil himself if he swallowed them?" "I don't know, my lord," said the doctor, pompously, drawing himself up, "I never prescribed for that patient." "Ah, no, doctor, dear, ye never did, more's the pity. The old boy's alive still!"

When Lord Morris was chief justice of the court of common pleas in Ireland a pantomime song was in vogue entitled "Are ye there, Moriarity?" One day the court reassembled after luncheon and it was found that one of the jurors, whose name was Moriarity, was missing. The critics and policemen shouted the name at the top of their voices, but there was no response. Meanwhile the judge, instead of fretting and fuming, lay back in his chair and began to hum loudly enough to be heard all over the court, "Are ye there, Moriarity?" When the wandering sheep did return he was asked what had delayed him. "I was takin' a pint ay porter an' a plenny rowl, me lord, an' I didn't mind the time," he explained. "You should know, sir, that this isn't the rowls court," said the chief, and the case proceeded with everyone, except the hapless juror, on a broad grin.

CHARLES BLISS' FORECASTS

Montgomery County Wizard Tangles Ideas Up in Great Shape.

Charles Bliss, in his Montgomery County News, says: "As we write these forecasts we are overcome with vexation. We are chagrined, mortified, annoyed, displeased and disquieted. Besides we are mal as a moist hen. At enormous expense we sent a special envoy to London to witness the coronation of King Edward and report for the News, and we had reserved the whole of the first page of this issue for his cablegram for which we expected to pay $3.83 a word. But the king had been stricken down with peripneumonia, or words to that effect, and the coronation will not be pulled off. The stricken king has been operated upon by six eminent surgeons, which is enough to kill him spangles and other shining duffickers, royal sufferer, and the money we expended for knee breeches and gold spangles and other shining duffickers to be worn by our special correspondent has just cabled us that he and Whitelaw Reid are drowning their disappointment in copious draughts of ar-an-af, and he requests us to forward him funds to enable him to come home. It is difficult to tell which feels the worst over the postponement of the coronation, he or Whitelaw Reid. Whit is a game cuss. When they assigned him a place in the royal procession alongside a Turkish pasha who owned a big harem in Constantinople, Whitelaw kicked like a bay steer and threatened to take his marbles and go home. Whereupon King Edward assigned him a carriage to himself with a nigger to drive.

With the coronation postponed indefinitely, with the chinch bugs eating up the corn, and with hogs selling at $7.95 a hundred when we are out of hogs, it will be almost impossible to forecast the weather for July with accuracy.

The month of July will come in on Tuesday this year just as congress is getting ready to adjourn. On the Fourth the nation's starchy banner will be flung to the breeze and the greased pig will come forth from its lair. Patriotism will stalk upon the stage and paw the blue empyrean. The village wit will light a dummy cannon cracker in a crowd and the hoony-handled farmer boy will drench his system with lemonade and bring on intestinal impaction with an overdose of peaputs. One hundred and twenty-six years ago this Fourth of July our forefathers signed the immortal document that made us a free people. We have been more or less free ever since, although busy most of the time paying taxes. We keep our liberty on 'ap all the time, summer and winter, but on July Fourth we knock in the head and bang tin cups to the barrel and tell the world to help himself, herself or itself as the case may be. Does the world do it? It does. The world crowds around the barrel, as it were, and drinks great draughts of liberty, while the native born American citizen goes away back and sits down! When I gaze upon the stalwart members of the metropolitan police and when I examine the names on the official register I sometimes almost wish I had been born in County Cork, or Bunzon on the Rhine so I would be entitled to a full measure of liberty!

July will be unusually stormy and great quantities of rain will fall at different periods during the month

CLOSE BIDDING.

The first thing on the program last night was the opening of the bids for furnishing water mains and the extras necessary to put them in. After the reading of the bids a recess of fifteen minutes was ordered so that the water and light committee could figure which was the low bid. They reported in favor of the Decatur Plumbing and Heating company. The statement was made that on the total there was a difference of only $9 between the successful bid and that submitted by the Mueller company. The bid accepted was as follows: 12-inch C. I. pipe $28.25 per ton; special fittings for this pipe, 3 3/4-cents per pound; 12-inch Eddy valves $35 each; 6-inch Matthews fire hydrants $38.50 each; pig lead $4.65 per hundred; calking yarn 5 cents per pound.

TO LOWER A SEWER.

Fahay and McNamara offered a resolution that the city clerk advertise for bids for lowering the sewer on Charles street from Sangamon to Great Western avenue. There was an effort to refer it to the water and light committee. Fahay made a talk and said that it would not cost 15 cents per lineal foot to do the work and thought that the city could do the work cheaper than by contracting. Mayor Shilling said that he had an estimate from the city engineer to the effect that the work would cost about $100. Eventually the resolution was referred to the public improvement committee with the street superintendent with power to contract for the work as they thought best.

PAY ROLL.

The street superintendent's pay roll for the last week was approved and warrants ordered. The total was $321.74 charged to the various funds as follows: public improvement, $16; street and alleys, $29.94; sidewalk and crossings, $41.47; cleaning streets, $233.55; cleaning crossings, $2.64.

SIDEWALK GRADES.

Resolutions for bringing sidewalks to grade were referred as follows: On both sides of Calhoun street in the 1300 block; on the east side of Webster from Johns avenue south forty feet; north side of Cantrell from Peake street west sixty feet; west side of Webster from Johns avenue south half a block; east side of Webster from Caldwell north half a block; west side of Jackson from Sheridan north half a block.

OTHER RESOLUTIONS.

That the sewer on Monroe street be extended north half a block to the intersection of Packard and Monroe. Referred to the public improvement committee and city engineer. To open the ditches on both sides of Puckard street from Main to Water. Referred to street and alley committee.

LIBRARY BOARD.

Mayor Shilling submitted the names of W. J. Quinlan, Mrs. T. A. McReynolds and Frank Shlaudeman as members of the library board. On motion of Peake the nominations were at once confirmed. Mr. Quinlan and Mrs. McReynolds succeeded themselves and Mr. Shlaudeman succeeds H. C. Schaub.

Out of Town Work.

Patton & Miller, the architects for The James Millikin University and the First Congregational church, will make the plans for the $250,000 addition to the plant of the Elgin Watch company, notice of which was given in these columns a few days since.

H. B. Walters, contractor for The James Millikin University buildings has been awarded the contract for the construction of the new cold storage warehouse to be erected by the Armour Packing company at Danville this summer. The work will cost about $60,000.

New Asbury Church.

The new church proposed by the Asbury congregation is fast materializing. Committees are at work raising the funds and they are meeting with much encouragement. The lot for the church on the corner of North Main and Herkimer streets was bought by D. E. Baucum, Harvey Gebhart and James Hobbs and is held by them until the church is ready to buy when they will donate their interests.

Chameleons.

C. Nahrang, who returned from Hammond, La., some days ago brought with him a number of chameleons. The little creatures are very spry and seem to thrive well in this climate. The little fellow who captured the reptiles says he wore out a pair of shoes hunting them down.

A lawyer's questions are often like needles—sharp and easily plied.

MEN'S SUMMER CLOTHING.

What the Best Dressed Gentlemen Will Wear Now.

The summer man this year is not gorgeous. He does not show many novelties. There is a kind of go-as-you-please in the fashions. This promotes originality and gives the short man, the stout man, or the tall man more latitude in his choice of clothing.

There is little to say about the hats. Much has already been written about the Panama. The truth of the matter is that the real Panama is so expensive that, once having been purchased the wearer will make it the fashion for many years. The imitations—even the best of them—are so unlike the real article that it is doubtful whether they can continue in vogue. Next to an automobile—or to be smart, a motor car—the most expensive belonging is a real Panama hat. Some have been shown at $400 and other at $100. The $15 are all very well until one sees the $100 product—then, as a man said recently, "You feel as cheap as 30 cents."

Thus those that do not feel that they can spare $100 for a hat are wearing the flat, smooth straw. They have an ordinary wide and flat brim, and are low in crown. There are a few English straw hats with narrow brims. Not many of these are in vogue, as it takes a man with a long face to wear them. Otherwise they look like a button on the top of a man's head, a reminder of the Great Panjandrum.

TRousERS LOOSE AND WIDE.

One fashion, however, is prevalent. Trousers are loose and wide. The latest from English tailors bag and float in the breeze. When made of ordinary heavy material, or even of serges and homespuns and some quality of flannels they are not bad, but a stout man in a light gray suit with loose trousers is a ludicrous sight. And yet one popular member of the Union and another from the Knickerbocker are wearing such loose trousers as to have provoked comment from urchins at the course on Saturday.

Blue serges and flannels have come again into popular favor.

There is no doubt but that washable waistcoats will be worn much this summer. The most fashionable haberdashers are displaying them in their windows, and already many of them are to be seen in the goup of men who are considered the best dressed. Brown is coming back, but in homespuns. It is a combination more of white and brown.

WASHABLE COATS POPULAR.

In fact, waistcoats are being made not only of linen proper, but of crash or madras even, and any light material. They will be the only concessions to bright colorings, and as they are in whites, in tans and in indefinite greens and blues, they are not gorgeous. The patterns are in lines up and down, usually of black and thin. Checks will not be worn.

There are no novelties yet in shirts. The plaited shirts are worn this summer for negligees, but not in as great numbers as those with plain bosoms. Many negligee shirts of white figured goods are popular. Browns, olives and lilacs are shown and white with black stripes and figures. In fact the black stripe, however, narrow, smartest.

There is no demand for flannel or silk shirts. Collars are all-round turn down of medium height. As the summer progresses the Ascot will be discarded entirely and the most popular and most fashionable cravat will be the long narrow four-in-hand.

Official List.

Circuit Clerk Allen has received from the secretary of state an official list of the corporations doing business in the state of Illinois. The names of a number of Decatur corporations are not given. This is probably due to the fact that the officers of the concerns failed to comply with the law which requires that they shall make reports at stated periods. For such failure the corporations are supposed to end their existence. As a penalty for their neglect it costs $20 to be reinstated.
